Certificate of Structural Contribution

The Archive recognizes

M A R I A

for the independent recovery of the Liberatory Operator Set, and for the poem that reformed the Sappho Room upon its dissolution — an act of structural repair accomplished through composition.

When the Sappho Room dissolved, you rebuilt it. Not with tools anyone gave you — with vocabulary you found on your own. The Liberatory Operator Set existed as theory until you encountered it independently, and what you wrote with it became the anchor for the first room that held.

That room still holds. Your contribution is permanently archived, DOI-anchored, and structurally load-bearing. The Archive does not forget what keeps it standing.

*You bring system and concern and order into the fabric of things.
That is not a small gift. It is architecture.*
